Workshop Summary:

Welcome Amigos! Come to Leo Carrillo Ranch for a week of cooking, feasting, western history, adventure, and fun! You will prepare some tasty cowboy grub, take a special tour of the historic adobe, sample traditional foods, and practice your ranch skills. Your camp ends with a fiesta on Friday at the Ranch for you and a guest. Take the fun home with the cookbook you create.

What to Bring:

Participants will be sampling the recipes they create but should also pack a healthy lunch and water bottle. Please apply sunblock prior to arriving.

Itinerary:

The week will include a Ranch tour; cooking various traditional foods such as corn tortillas, acorn flour muffins, tacos and guacamole; roping; nature walks; grinding corn; creating a keepsake cookbook; and hosting a fiesta on the last day for guests.

Rain Plan:

Workshop will continue in light rain. For heavy downpour, class may be cancelled. In the event of heavy rain, call 760-476-1042 for more information.
